

Handout D - Letter to Editor on Social Security

You have heard the debate on Social Security. You have also had a chance to question those both for and against the Social Security program.

Now you need to write a letter to the editor expressing your concerns, doubts, and praise of the Social Security Act of 1935. Make sure to fully explain the reasons for your opinion. On the back of this assignment sheet are general directions on writing a letter to the editor and a couple of sample letters.

Your letter should be approximately 200 words in length. The letter must be word-processed. Grammar, punctuation, and spelling must be given serious consideration. There should be NO run-ons or fragments.

It is due on: _____.
