

Envelope A

Your team has just stumbled upon the first set of clues in this mystery. They include an article from a local newspaper about David Walker, a possible image of David Walker, and a poster advertising a meeting that David Walker may have attended. You need to sort through these clues to get a better idea of who he was and what kind of life he led prior to his death. Read the clues carefully and then answer the following questions:

- 1) Where was David Walker living?
- 2) What kind of business was David Walker involved in?
- 3) Do the clues give us any ideas about David Walker's race?
- 4) What do the clues suggest were David Walker's views on slavery? Was he for or against it?

Definitions:

seditions adj. Involving or encouraging rebellion against a government or other authority

Attribute vt. To give credit for a certain thing, such as a work of art or literature, or a saying, to a particular person, often wrongly